

Visa Info: USA

The Public Service Centers of American Express provide visa applications processing service for intended travelers to the United States. All foreign citizens wishing to visit United States are required to obtain an appropriate visa prior to their travel. Following are the types of visas;

Non-immigrant Visa is for a specific purpose requiring short stay such as business, study or visiting etc.

Immigrant Visa is for migrating to reside in the United States permanently against an Immigration Visa Petition (I-130).

All visa applicants are required to submit their visa applications along with passport, supporting documents etc. and deposit visa fee at the authorized outlets of American Express for submission to the Embassy, interview scheduling and for return of the visited passports to the applicants.

US Embassy Islamabad conducts Interviews from Monday through Friday with the exception of the last Friday of the month and scheduled holidays.

To allow adequate time for processing, analysis and decision making it is highly recommended that applicants must plan and start visa process early, preferably 3 months before the intended travel date.
